

WORK LIFE FULFILLMENT

The wikipedia definition of work - life balance says: “Work-Life balance is the lack of opposition between work and other life roles. It is the state of equilibrium in which demands of personal life, professional life, and family life are equal.” Pfft....that doesn't sound fun. Is this actually going to make YOU happy?

We prefer the term WORK - LIFE FULFILLMENT. Imagine a work - life where you fulfilled your goals and purpose, met all your needs, felt happy and satisfied and lived up to your full potential. Sounds pretty awesome, right? Here are some areas where ROAH helps you in your goal to work-life fulfillment.

- We support your desires to work on your personal and professional growth.
 - Paid Time Off - we encourage our team to take time when they need it.
 - Unlimited CE
 - Choice of work schedule
 - No after hour emergencies / No on call
 - No Saturday or Sunday hours

- We ensure you stay focused on your professional goals.
 - Open door policy with management
 - Regular department meetings
 - Regular one-on-ones
 - Support from practice owner to develop any skills so that you can let your passion drive you. If you want to try a new treatment, we'll help you with training and education.

- We understand your unique strengths as an individual and support those strengths

- We put the emphasis on our team to actually define your own idea for your work-life!